

Personality of the Year

This award is presented to the person who has had the biggest impact on the motor industry during the previous 12 months. Their contribution will have made a significant positive impact to the way companies do business or to the way the industry is portrayed to the public. The recipient is decided by AM editor Jeremy Bennett.