

Retailer of the Year

This award is given to the best retailer in the UK. The four winners from the retail categories – large retail group, small retail group, dealership and used car retailer – go head-to-head to decide the winner. Quality, service, profitability, innovation and a robust business plan are essential.